

Problem Solution: Terrorism

There has been a rise in the number of terror acts around the world. Many countries have suffered from the tragic consequences of terrorism. It is important to address this issue to establish a society where citizen can live in peace. How do you think the problem of terrorism can be solved?

- Cutting down the source of terrorists
- Locating and dealing with politicians who give support to terrorists.
- Harsher punishment for people who engage in terrorist acts
- Diverting media attention from terrorist groups
- Instituting positive incentives to actual and prospective terrorist for proper reintegration into society.